From the time of antiquity the scientists, the lay people and the commoners have all been occupied with how to match a woman and a man so that they would enjoy a lifetime of happy coexistence under one roof while creating and raising a family, despite all the challenges and hardships. These hardships are caused by economical, cultural, societal, environmental, personality, religious, and familial factors and have always been an inevitable part of life. The astrologers were often consulted to calculate the degree of compatibility between the prospective couples; in addition the experience and the skills of the matchmakers, the elders of the families and friends were also put to good use. People are desperately trying to find their soul-mate, a lifelong partner. We will study the dating industry issues in more detail. So what are people to do? This book is attempting to answer this question by providing a method, a systematic do it yourself approach, to empower people, through meticulous and thorough analysis and understanding, to find the right person for a happy lifetime relationship.
