Excerpt: . . . 11 For example, representatives of the Arlington County Fire De-partment, the Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Inves-tigation had been meeting for years prior to 9 11. Each understood the others needs and had established a high-degree of trust. Be-cause of those relationships and understandings, each agency was represented at the command post within 10 minutes. The unified command structure facilitated communications, operability and saved lives. Mr. Chairman, we must build a national capability to respond that includes the ability to use the National Incident Management System. To accomplish this goal, we make the following rec-ommendations. One, the Department of Homeland Security must establish a baseline capacity by requiring everyone from the executive level to the responder level, to take the online National Incident Manage-ment System introduction course. Two, the Department of Homeland Security should issue a list of practical steps...
