Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Equity in Roman Law: Lectures Delivered in the University of London, at the Request of the Faculty of Laws The following pages contain, in substance, a course of three lectures, delivered by me, at University College, London, under the auspices of the Faculty of Laws of the University of London, in January and February of the present year. The matter has been rearranged and somewhat amplified by the inclusion of some topics which were omitted in the lectures for want of time. I have attempted to show the essential kinship, not of the Roman and the English law, but rather of the Roman and the English lawyer. To this end I have chosen a number of Equitable notions, and have sought to show how the Roman lawyer, in the main without the help of legislation, modified the law in directions almost identical with those followed, as it seems quite independently, by our Equity Courts. I have appended some remarks on the study of Roman Law, which will probably not meet with general acceptance. The treatment...
