The Pan-Albanian Federation in America has replied a few months later, accusing us of having deliberately misstated the case of the Districts of Korytsa and Kolonia. We ask, therefore, the indulgence of the Peace Conference to reply to those accusations briefly: (1) We are attacked because in our memorandum of May we stated that the Christian population of those Districts constitutes the object of the Peace Delegation's concern. In that statement the Christian Epirotes were far from advocating that the interests of Mohammedans should be sacrificed to the Christian Epirotes. We have merely stated the opinion already...
