Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.BOOK #4 in the SERIES! Tiwaka, fresh from freeing the Waikiki sidewalk parrots, is leading a fish spotting flight school on Maui. The bartender s astronaut brother is in town for the opening of the Lahaina Tiwaka s Tiki Bar Grill, and he s a little overwhelmed. The usual suspects are coloring the bar with as much color as those tropical Hawaiian sunsets. * More importantly, the secret to Tiwaka s ability to eat chocolate is revealed! (normal parrots find it poisonous) EXCERPT: She was dressed to do me harm. Silk seemed to drape her shoulders. Yet, as she moved closer I could see she wore only a standard surfer tee just above some apres-beach shorts. It was her that moved as silk, just underneath that most fortunate cotton. No one else in the packed ocean side bar seemed to notice the new arrival. When her eyes swung through the crowd, calculating, searching, and found mine, I could tell that she knew I had noticed. Her subtle smile captured my breath, squeezing it around my heart with a practiced caress. Lightly brushing long dark brown curls away from her arched, inquisitive eyebrow focused my attention, evaporating the crowd and the bar noise. Her pushing those full lips just far enough out so that they would slowly retreat back onto themselves, inviting me to follow, managed to stop all measures of time. Right before I fell completely off my bar stool I caught myself stepping all over the approaching waitress. Hey big guy, she said with more patience than I deserved. Turning her head to follow my stare, she whistled lightly to herself. Wow. she s back. She slid...
