Prof. Buck, in his paper on College Expenses, said, the necessary expenses are not greater than they were; board, clothing and room rent have not been cheaper within twenty-five years. A large share of the unnecessary increase in expense is due to the young people themselves. In County Superintendents Section meeting, Prof. Wernli, recommended that in the matter of township and county high schools the Legislature change may to shall, making their establishment mandatory. The College Section elected the following officers: President, W. M. Brooks, Tabor College; Secretary, W. W. Gist, Coe College; and Vice President, Prof. Harkness, Fairfield College. Prof. DeLong, Gist and Price, of the College Section, were appointed a committee to report at the next annual meeting, on Cooperation among the different Colleges in the matter of discipline. J. P. Hendricks, was the busy Railroad Secretary...
