I have never asserted that the Cork workhouse was one whit worse than any other in the kingdom, nor do I believe it. I regret that many labouring under this impression, yourself among the number, should have hastily taken up arms in defence of a system that is literally soaked in the lifes blood of innocent children, whose only crime has been their poverty and their orphanage. I have the honor to remain, Sib, Your obedient Servant, JOHN ARNOTT. SECTION V. The Prevalence Of Scrofula In The Cork workHouse. The Witnesses Examined. Being anxious to know how the appearance of these poor children would strike other persons, as well as myself, I requested his Lordship the Bishop of...
