Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Studies in American Literature, Vol. 4: A Program for Women s Clubs The suggestions for study made in this program are in no sense to be construed as a syllabus of American literature. All of the books and selections cited for study are drawn from our literature of the last hundred years and make no pretense at being all-inclusive or even consecutive in their arrangement. It is, however, hoped that the student who consistently follows the reading here outlined will learn something of the life and writing of more than fifty of the outstanding figures in our history of letters. The one purpose that has been kept in mind has been that of affording both a pleasant and an instructive journey through the realms of gold. The last half of the program frankly emphasizes modern and contemporary literature. This is done not because of any deep-rooted assurance that our current writing is to prove permanent, but in the belief that literature draws its greatest inspiration from life as it passes and lives only insofar as...
