Publishing Inspiration. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 152 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Humorous, Inspirational Story That All Will Love Meet six-year-old Tommy Johnson, Super Cowboy and Super Story-teller. Want to build a box to capture wild cats that roam the farm How about tips on catching a greased pig at the fair, or teaching a stubborn lamb to avoid being trampled by angry milk cows From the first paragraph, when Tommy explains why a boy needs a dog for a pet instead of a cat, he wins us over with his down-to-earth and humorous view of the world. Once Tommy begins school, however, things get complicated. He gets picked on by teachers and mocked by classmates. And then tragedy strikes. In the process of dealing with his grief, Tommy learns the meaning of true friendship. This is a book even reluctant readers will enjoy. Boys, girls, and adults have all enjoyed this fun book. Some Reviews The little boy, Tommy, reminds me of Calvin from the Calvin and Hobbs comic strip by Bill Watterson because of his mischievousness. It is such a fun book to read! -- Celese Sanders (syndicated columnist of Little Bits Of Life) Super Cowboy Rides reminds me of when I was a boy and we would visit my grandparents farm in Utah where my cousins would try, in a loving way, to kill me. It has a ring of authenticity that could only be accomplished by growing up on a farm or ranch. I loved each chapter, but once I reached the end of the book I realized I had been taught some important lessons. This is a book that boys will love as well as girls who look for the good in everyone. -- Jack Weyland (Author...
