Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Mercantile Credits: A Series of Practical Lectures Delivered Before the Young Men s Christian Association of Los Angeles, California The mental equipment of the successful business man of today can hardly be too complete. The amount of information requisite for the proper conduct of his business exceeds that required by the business man of any other age. His information must be accurate and must cover a wide scope. What he knows he must know well. He is constantly called upon to pass upon questions of great importance, and he must decide without delay. His decisions must be based: First, upon the business wisdom of accepting or refusing the opportunities offered. Second, upon a hurried review of the legal problems involved. It is impossible to keep an attorney constantly at his elbow to pass upon every transaction, and therefore he must have a working knowledge of business law. Third, upon keen judgment of human nature and human character. The aphorism of Alexander Pope, The proper study of mankind is man, applies with greater force to the business man than to others. The National Association of Credit Men labors unceasingly to educate its members in all those subjects which are so vital to their success. By bulletins, letters, lectures, and debates, the propaganda has gone forward. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
