Adams: Preached Before Bethel Presbytery, During Their Spring Sessions, 1844, in Catholic Church, Chester District, S. C My father, my father; the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. - 2 Kings, ii. 12. Elijah the Tishbite, the bold and intrepid prophet of the Most High, after a life of preeminent devotedness to the service of God and the welfare of man, is to be removed from this, to a higher sphere of service; to one of nearer and more intimate communion with God. His labors are finished, the affairs of earth are wound up, a chariot of fire conveys him from earth to heaven. Elisha, his attendant, witnesses the whole scene, and gazing with amazement on his ascending master, pours forth the impassioned language of our text, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof? This is at once the language of grief and of astonishment; but we may ask, where is its propriety? In the days of the prophet...
