Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The McMaster University Monthly, Vol. 8: Oct., 1898, to May, 1899 Some things are being continually rejected because they are old, while others for the very same reason are being tenaciously retained. The Chinese lady submits to the practice of foot-bandaging because for ages it has been looked upon as the proper thing to do, but in the painful memory of living men, Canadian belles have varied their tastes all the way and back again from the tiny turban to the hat of the Wife of Bath style, and from the trim figure of the modern bicycle girl to the crinoline of a decade or two ago: and all, simply to avoid the horrid thought of not wearing something entirely new. Thus we are being continually whipped by our whims round this miserable circle of a changeless change. Day follows night, and night, day, and the events are much the same, but they must not appear so. New bottles must be fashioned to contain the same old wine, new phrases must be racked up to express the same old thoughts until our language has become a veritable jumble of metaphors. And the writing of class histories is one of these fads. Classes haze and are hazed, break up and re-unite, plug, write and pass on, struggle and graduate: the facts are always the same, but it must not appear so. If in one case the course is compared to the outgoing of a goodly ship, the next must stage it as a drama, or put before our eyes the amphitheatre and heroes struggling for the victory. Thus are we tyrannized over by our hankering after...
