Not illustrated. 1890 Excerpt: .First Reader, to be used by the pupils of the second grade, is very desirable and I believe necessary If more reading is to be introduced into the Grammar grades, if the work in drawing is to be continued, and Latin, though optional, put into the ninth grade, it seems to me that it will be necessary to modify the course of study for the eighth and the ninth grades. The work done in drawing by these two grades, under the direction of Miss Brehm, is very satisfactory indeed, and I should be sorry to see it limited to less than two hours a week; but two hours a week means a reduction of one-fifth of the time from mathematics. In order to make room for new studies and to prevent the overloading, I recommend that problems in Interest, Present Worth, Partial Payments, Compound Interest and...
