Stratton, of Montgomery, Ala: At the Reunion and Memorial Exercises of Camp Robinson Springs No; 396 Alabama Division, United Confederate Veterans, Robinson Springs, Elmore Co., Ala;, July 24, 1915 In expressing my sincere appreciation for the honor of your invitation to speak today, I must ask your charitable consideration for what may be said; for this occasion presents great lessons, as well as memories. It is of itself a lofty theme; its topics are so varied and of such consequence as to challenge the ablest and most patriotic thought. The most momentous events of American history, the causes, the effects and the influences of the mightiest political and social revolution of recent times; the relation of the States to the Union, and to each other; the rights of the States and the people; the achievements of the Confederate Soldier in war and in peace. All come before us together with memories which awaken the noblest and tenderest sentiments of the human heart. Speaking by your request, it is appropriate...
