

Memoirs of a Prodigal - Book 2

By Timothy J. Morris

Tate Publishing & Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. In a Far Country is the second installment of the Memoirs of a Prodigal trilogy. In this volume, Timothy Morris continues to explicate the lessons of the Prodigal Son parable in Luke 15. In this part of the story, Benjamin, the younger son, has just torn himself away from his father. He is on a journey. He is leaving one life behind and seeking another. Join him on his travels and through his eyes experience with all the adventures he has along the way. Benjamin encounters remarkable people who tell him stories about a teacher that has changed their lives, until, one day, in a country and a place far from home, he meets the teacher himself. Live through Benjamin's downfall and see for yourself what it took for him to come to himself. In a Far Country will elevate your understanding of God's searching heart, the limitlessness of his grace, and the power of his love, but also of the frightening responsibility each of us has been given when he created us with free will.
