Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Atonement of Christ: Six Lectures Delivered in Hereford Cathedral During, Holy Week, 1871 These Sermons need but a few words of Preface. They are published because some who heard them felt that the subjects brought under consideration needed to be thought over more deliberately than could be the case at the time of hearing. They aim at setting forth the deep practical importance of the doctrinal Truths of the Atonement. Should they be read by any student of Theology, he will see at once where I am indebted to well-known writers on this subject in the past and the present times, although I have not thought it necessary to encumber my pages with needless references to authorities. The one truth which, beyond all others, I desire that they may suggest, is the inseparable unity which must exist between Christian doctrine, even in its more mysterious forms, and Christian morality or devotion.
