

The Three-Cornered Hat

By De Alarcon, Pedro Antonio.

Hesperus. 1 Paperback(s), 2004. soft. Book Condition: New. When the grotesque and lascivious magistrate Don Eugenio takes a fancy to Señora Frasquita, the miller's wife, confusion and hilarity ensue, in this 1874 send-up of traditional Spanish ballads by Pedro Antonio de Alarcón. Frasquita and the miller decide to play a trick on the insufferable Don Eugenio, but in the hijinks that follow including clothes-swapping, mistaken identities, a false arrest, and a bit of slapstick will any of these people be able to maintain their dignity? The basis for Manuel de Falla's 1919 ballet by the same name, this influential novel is one of the best-loved Spanish classics of the 19th century. 100.
