Excerpt: . . . righteousness was such that The Lord came and dwelt with His people. . . . And the Lord called His people Zion, because they were of one heart and one mind, and dwelt in righteousness; and there was no poor among them. (Pearl of Great Price, p. 88.) The people of whom the Book of Mormon bears record also attained a blessed state of equality and with corresponding results. The Twelve Disciples, whom Christ had specially commissioned, ministered with such effectiveness that the people had all things common among them, every man dealing justly one with another. (3 Nephi 26: 19.) Further, Therefore they were not rich and poor, bond and free, but they were all made free, and partakers of the heavenly gift. (4 Nephi 1: 3.) Of them the prophet wrote: Surely there could not be a happier people...
