Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This fair and stainless thing I take To be my badge for virtues sake; Its ample strings that gird me round My constant cable-tow are found. And as securely they are tied So may true faith with me abide; And as I face the sunny South I pledge to God my Masons truth, That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I raise In memory of my Apprentice days. When on the checkered pavement wide, With guage and gavel well supplied, It kept my garments free from soil, Though laboring in a menial toil; And as I face the Golden West, I call my Maker to attest That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I lower--Its Prentice aid I need no more, For laws and principle! are given The Fellow Craft direct from heaven; To help the needy, keep a trust, Observe the precepts of the just; And as I face the darkened North I send this solemn promise forth. That while on earth I may remain My apron shall not have a stain. This fair and stainless thing I doff--And though I take my apron off, And lay this stainless badge aside, Its teachings ever shall abide; That God hath given light divine That we may walk opposed to sin: That sympathy and brotherly love Are...
