But hope deferred until it seemed as a vanishing dream, is now a beautiful realization. A fine location was secured some fifteen months ago, and a beautiful building, quite modern in its arrangements, has been erected. Our first service was held in the new church on the third Sunday in May. The joy of the people was manifest in the attendance of nearly five hundred at the first service, and a collection of more than $100 for the day. The interest shown in all the meetings since the opening, awakens a lively hope for the future of the church. The building is finished in red brick and trimmed in gray stone. The auditorium will have a fixed seating for four hundred, with a choir platform back of the pulpit for about thirty. The lecture room is large enough to seat about 300, and four classrooms, each sufficient to accommodate twenty-five pupils. The basement will be used by the Sunday-school, for prayer meetings, lectures, missionary bands, etc. The church is needed in Birmingham. It would be difficult to find in many other places, so many strong reasons for a well equipped church as is needed here. To meet conditions successfully the church should have ample accommodations, intelligence, zeal for holiness, and love for souls. A MISSIONARY VISIT. It was in the summer of 1886 that I made my first visit to the home and parish of Oberlin, in the little village...
